ALUM

To Our Valued Mastic® Home Exteriors Distributors:

Due to the dramatic escalation of the Midwest Premium Index on aluminum ingot, we are announcing a price increase of approximately 7% on all metal products except Gutter and Downspout Coil effective with orders received beginning March 1, 2014. Gutter and Downspout Coil pricing will continue to be published on a monthly basis. Orders placed by 2:00 p.m. on February 28, 2014 with firm specifications and shipped by March 14, 2014 will receive current pricing. All other orders will be billed at the new pricing.

We have been absorbing increases in the Midwest Premium Index since May of 2011. As this cost driving index has nearly doubled since September of last year we are no longer able to absorb these increases in our trim coil and fabricated product lines. While we continue to reduce costs wherever possible, this increase in raw material costs is expected to continue for the foreseeable future.

We understand the challenges that price increases pose for our customers. We appreciate your commitment to our product categories and Mastic®. If you have questions, please contact your sales representative or customer service representative. As always, we thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Jerry A. Blais

January 13, 2014

To Our Valued Mastic Home Exteriors Distributors:

Due to continued increases in raw material, production and transportation costs that are beyond our ability to offset through cost savings initiatives, we are announcing a price increase effective with orders received beginning March 1, 2014.

Note: Orders placed prior to close of business on February 28, 2014 with firm specifications and shipped by March 7, 2014, will receive current pricing. All other orders will be billed at the new higher pricing.

Price increases on the following product categories:

- Vinyl siding, vinyl soffit, and vinyl accessories: 6% - 8%
- Polymer shake, shingle and round cut siding and accessories: 6% - 8%
- Ply Gem PVC Trim and Mouldings: 6% - 8%

We expect that the end of February will begin a strong shipping period. We encourage you to place your orders as soon as possible as we may experience heavy order volumes that could impact overall lead times and our ability to ship orders by March 7th at the old price. New price sheets with product specific information will be available over the next several weeks.

We appreciate your commitment to our product categories and Mastic Home Exteriors. If you have questions, please contact your sales or customer service representative. As always, we thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Jerry A. Blais
